

Jim and he can get but very few boxes of this size opened that quickly. Please have him get me four dozen quarts of lemon juice by next week. Joseph Forge made a very quick ride to the zone when the box was lost. Pack my box with five dozen lacquered jugs for him. Expert Mickey bought quaint glazed Peruvian flower jugs. The excited wizard quickly jumped over the green bluffs. Vern just quizzed Alex about chopping yellow logs for Mike. Jack frequently vexed Miss Zenobia with clapping or hissing. The vexed, proud squaw calmly juggled half a dozen milk bottles. Your boy quickly realized this jumping was very excellent for us. "What zip and vigor," the wise judges before me quickly exclaimed. Professor Joy might have been quizzical during the next few weeks. The job requires extra pluck and zeal from every young wage earner. Jack's perplexed, puzzled physiognomy blinked quietly in full view. My six grey-brown jackals zestfully played over the hot quicksand. Be quick to type the words: firmly, varying, jeopardize, dexterity. Six dozen jugs of liquid cement will be moved to Paul Kenny's house. Paul vexes keen writers by clearly quoting from itemized job sheets.