

came came came came came cannot cannot cannot cannot cannot road road road road road dog dog dog dog dog room room room room room down down down down down run run run run run ever ever ever ever ever saw saw saw saw saw example example example example example second second second second second serve serve serve serve serve food food food food food she she she she she hold hold hold hold hold small small small small small mean mean mean mean mean usually usually usually usually usually miss miss miss miss miss walked walked walked walked walked outside outside outside outside I carefully came with food for the poor. Steven walked down the road in the rain. He saw the second mean dog in the field. She cannot ever serve in the room again. They usually run out of that small hole. I miss his example when we play outside.